Order:

In the reference 1st read above, the Director General of Police, AP, Hyderabad, has informed that Sri Ch. Subba Raju, PC 9463 was initially selected as PC on 15.11.1996 in Hyderabad City. The applicant was issued a General Number and sent for basic training at PTC, Ananthapur. After completion of two months training, his services were terminated from training on the ground that the applicant was having less than prescribed minimum height for selection. However, as per the orders of the APAT, Hyderabad, dated: 3.6.1997, in O.A.No.7975/96, a Special Medical Board was constituted and the Board opined that the height of the applicant was found to be 167.6 cms. As per the report of Special Medical Board, the Constable was again sent for training on 4.12.1998. He completed his training successfully in August, 1999.

2. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has further reported that the applicant approached the APAT in O.A.No.7775/2007 for his notional seniority w.e.f 15.11.1996, i.e. from the initial date of his appointment. The APAT in its final orders, dated: 29.4.2010, in O.A.No. 7775/2007, issued directions that:

“The respondents are directed to verify the certificate issued by the Special Medical Board constituted on the directions of the Tribunal and if he is fit and has fulfilled the required height prescribed under rules, the Respondents are directed to give notional seniority on par with the candidates of the same batch and pass appropriate orders, according to rules.”

3. The DGP, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has further reported that the chairman, State Level Police Recruitment Board, Hyderabad, in his opinion dated: 3.5.2011, has stated that “The candidate was recommended by another Medical Board and was allowed for training, which means, it must have been accepted. He deserves notional seniority as per APAT orders.”

4. The Director General of Police, A.P. Hyderabad has, therefore, requested the Government to issue suitable orders for assigning notional seniority to Sri Ch. Subba Raju, PC 9463, Hyderabad, from the date of his initial appointment that is 15.11.1996.

5. Government have examined the issue and observed that there is no fault on the part of the applicant and the delay in his case may be attributed to the administrative reasons. He is, therefore, entitled for seniority along with the earlier batch i.e 1996.

6. In view of the above and in view of the orders of the Hon’ble Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad, in O.A.No.7775/2007, Government hereby direct that seniority be assigned to Sri Ch. Subba Raju, PC 9463, Hyderabad, from the date of his initial appointment i.e 15-11-1996.

7. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, is requested to take necessary action in the matter accordingly.
